Two Petitions Heat Up Fishing Dispute

By Jon Thompson

Two opposing petitions have surfaced in Grayling concerning no-kill fishing regulations for a stretch of the AuSable River mainstream from Burton's Landing to Wakeley Bridge.

The first petition, initiated by Tom Opre, Detroit Free Press outdoor writer, supports no-kill regulations for that part of the river also called the Holy Water.

The entire petition reads: No-Kill Rules for the AuSable Mainstream Whereas, the DNR Fisheries Division's own data now shows that slotted size limits removed large numbers of trout from the biomass; and

Whereas, the DNR Fisheries Division's own data and computer modeling has proven itself to be highly accurate, and it predicts no-kill regulations will provide the highest number of large trout; and

Whereas, the DNR Fisheries Division's own data shows that the vast majority of Mainstream anglers already voluntarily release all the trout they catch;

Now therefore be it resolved that we, the undersigned, petition the Fisheries Division to draw up no-kill regulations for the Mainstream between Burton's Landing and Wakeley Bridge and submit them to the Michigan Natural Resources Commission for approval by January, 1986, No automatic termination shall be contained therein.

The second petition, being circulated at Down River Pines, Skip's Sport Shop, the Cedar Motel, and Newberry's Mini-Mart in Frederic, opposes no-kill regulations and supports a creel limit on this part of the river.

The entire petition reads: We, the undersigned, being residents or property owners of Crawford County, with the understanding of a petition in circulation, by Trout Unlimited, to close Burton's Landing to Wakeley Bridge, on the mainstream of the AuSable, to no-kill only. We are petitioning to have this stopped. We, the undersigned, are opposed to such action and request this area have a creel limit and not discriminate against harvesting our fish as a natural resource.

"We feel if you buy a license and enjoy fishing - yes even eating those fish - we should have that choice, to release them or to keep them," says Duane LaMotte, of Down River Pines.

The second petition opposing no-kill has gathered more than 100 signatures in a few days, says Brenda Austin, of Down River Pines.

Rusty Gates, of Gates Lodge, says a petition there supporting no-kill has gathered more than 300 signatures in eight days. He says DNR commissioners have signed the petition as well as fishermen from ten different states.

Although the second petition opposing no-kill says that Trout Unlimited is circulating the first petition, Bob Andrus, president of the local TU chapter, says that isn't right.

"The local George Mason chapter has not discussed any regulations yet. We will be discussing the issue at our May 23rd meeting," says Andrus, who is also a vice-president for the state TU council. "The state council hasn't discussed it either and I doubt it will take up the issue for another four to five months."

Andrus says as far as he knows the first petition was started by Opre and other downstate supporters of no-kill.

The Burton's to Wakeley stretch of the AuSable currently has slotted size regulations that were started in 1979. They allow fishermen to only keep trout from 8-12 inches and above 16 inches.

The slotted size regulations were imposed to try to increase the number of large brown trout. In theory, the slotted size removes a lot of medium size fish allowing the remaining trout - with less competition - to grow faster.

The slotted size regulations are expiring this fall prompting the debate concerning future regulations.

In addition to the two petitions already circulating, Rusty Gates, of Grayling, has offered a proposal he feels is a good compromise.

In a letter to the North Woods Call, Gates suggests a "breakfast slot" with an emphasis on a trophy fishery. The breakfast slot would allow fishermen to keep three fish, 8 to 10 inches, and one fish over 18 inches. All fish between 10 to 18 inches would be released.

He says this would increase threefold the number of fish protected in the release slot the first year alone. In conjunction with the breakfast slot, Gates says a fall planting of 10-inch Bighorn or Beaverhead strain browns from out West is needed.

"This may be the only short term way to deal with the stunted growth problem (in the mainstream) short of total closure of the fishery," he says.

The brown trout in the mainstream are only growing two inches a year compared to a state average of three and a half to four inches a year. Gates says the D.N.R.'s new report, "Effects of a Slotted Size Limit on the Brown Trout Fishery in the AuSable River" finally recognizes the Favro theory of population genetic damage. This theory suggests that by killing off the larger brown trout (by previous minimum size limits on the AuSable) and leaving behind the smaller trout to reproduce, we have bred a stunted, slow-growing, inferior brown trout, Gates says.

A D.N.R. report says that fishermen harvested large numbers of these 8-12" browns. An 8" brown trout was subjected to two years of angler harvest before they reached the 12" release slot, because of the slow growth rate. Yet the latest creel survey figures say that 73% of the Mainstream fisherman are releasing all 8-12" brown trout. This means a very small percentage of the total fisherman are having a large impact on the fish reaching the 12" release slot.

"It's time to stabilize the fishery and unite to get on with facing the environmental problems which exist on our state's most famous trout fishery."

To comment on AuSable fishing regulations, fishermen can write to Dave Borgeson, DNR Fisheries Division, P.O. Box 30028, Lansing, Mi. 48909.

Monday Rain Dampens Forest Fire Season

By Jon Thompson

A soaking rain for most of Monday dampened the fire season here at the right time. In past years, the second week of May has been the most dangerous time for forest fires in Crawford County.

"The rain may not have totally ended our peak fire season but it sure will help green things up," said Duane Brooks, DNR forest fire fighter from the Grayling office.

The peak fire season in Crawford County and most of northern Michigan is after the snow melts and before the forests have abundant green growth.

Conditions for forest fires were becoming extreme before the lengthy rain Monday.

Brooks said humidity levels dropped to 13 percent two days last week - the lowest he's seen in years. He said it was fortunate the winds were low on those dry days.

The Grayling DNR fire fighting crew assisted on three fires last week.

The largest occurred on Wednesday afternoon, May 1st, off of Billman Road. Approximately seven acres of mixed jack pine and hardwoods were burned along with a small outbuilding. The Beaver Creek Fire Dept. put out the fire at the outbuilding and a pile of logs while the DNR handled the fire in the woods. Brooks said the woods fire was contained with plowlines and put out with water. The fire apparently was started from a debris fire that wasn't fully extinguished the day before by residents.

About a tenth of an acre burned off Roberts Road Tuesday, April 30, and a child received face burns. The fire was believed to be started by children. Neighbors had the fire contained by the time local fire departments arrived.

On Thursday, May 2, about one acre burned near Greenwood Rd. off M-72 East. The Grayling Fire Dept. and DNR put out the fire that was in a jack pine area. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

GHS Team Reaches Finals In 'Brain Strain' Contest

By Matt Klemp

On April 20, a Grayling High School group composed of 3 sophomores (Kirk Day, Chris Helton, and Keith Whaley), one senior (Pete Huss), one freshman (Matt Klemp), lead by their seasoned coach (Tom Mills), competed in the annual Brainstrain competition at Elk Rapids during their Academic Festival. The team arrived on the scene with high morale, in hopes of clinching a perfect record of 4-0.

The competition was set up in the gymnasiums of the Elk Rapids Elementary, Middle, and High Schools. The competing students sat at tables in front of an audience of parents, friends, teachers, and worried coaches.

There were buzzers, made by the Elk Rapids students for the contest of wits, placed in the center of each table so that anyone on the team could easily "buzz in". Scoring was tallied in the following fashion: 10 points for a correct answer on a "toss up" question and 5 points for a follow-up question.

In the first round of competition, they faced Benzie Central in the category of Trivial Pursuit, which used both Genus and Baby-Boomer editions; and walked away 30 minutes later with their first win, 175-90. For the second round, Grayling went head-to-head against Boyne City in the Open category, which was made up of questions from general topics. 330 to 155 was the tallied score - and Grayling had their second win.

A meal prepared for the competitors, consisting of ethnic specialties from countries ranging from France to Poland, was the crew's lunchtime fare. Afterward the team watched a juggling demonstration until their third competition.

Science & Math was the next subject on the agenda for the afternoon session. The well-rounded Grayling five-man team, after falling behind, came back to defeat the Brethren team by a score of 195-135.

The Grayling team, being undefeated for the day's competition was tied with Traverse City for total combined points. The last match, between Traverse City and Grayling was for all the marbles in the category of English & Social Studies. The Grayling team, getting off to a decent start, quickly fell behind the ringer team of Traverse, mostly in the areas of English literature, specifically Shakespeare.

From Our Corner...

Another week of bits and pieces, hits and misses and a couple of grass roots opinions...

First off we're going to hit on the political scene even though for years we have never gotten involved...in our years of voting we have jumped back and forth from the two big parties like a jack rabbit, so you might call us an independent as far as politics is concerned...

What really brought all this on was Saturday evening as we got a chance to read the morning Free Press the one major headline sort of got our dander up...

To quote, "Senate Cuts Medicare, Medicaid", sub head, "Reagan wanted bigger cut; senators reject lower pay", unquote...

I guess you might say this was the year we went GOP...I'm beginning to think that the only reason we did was we couldn't go along with Minnesota's gift to the Democratic Party and his choice of a running mate...and along with this, reading about how President Reagan's promise of not lowering anything that would hinder the senior citizens of our fair nation...

Maybe our thinking is due to the fact that we, too, will be one of the many in those supposed golden years of life...but dang it all, a promise is a promise, whether it is out of the mouth of the President of the United States, or just the ordinary man on the street...

My other peeve was the second part of the headline where our esteemed senators could vote to cut Medicare and Medicaid, and then turn around and reject a lower pay for themselves...they would only have gone down to a measly $67,590 from their present pay of $75,100...

Must not be an election year for most of the senators...

It has to be wine time...we noticed Sunday morning that our back yard was loaded with yellow topped flowers, and our bride remarked as she left for the golf course, "I should stay home and do some picking"...she didn't, golf came first before wine...she did mention there would be more on another day and of course I only make it for medicinal purposes...

An idle thought...with wine time, it has to be near for the Orioles return...this way we can get two uses out of the oranges, one time for the wine and when that is through we can put the rest out on the bench for the Orioles...on second thought, we had better not, there maybe some Orioles flying upside down only for medicinal purposes...

For the life of us, we do not know why we spend $2.00 a week on the Michigan Lotto...we were born poor, and I'm sure the deity has plans for us to die poor...but then, I guess there is a little bit of dreaming in all of us...

We were shopping one evening last week and as we were checking out, a fellow asked our bride if she had cleaned out the den so we could move in...she answered truthfully, "no, and I'm making him suffer for all those nasty remarks he makes about me", our problem is that I don't think the people believe that I tell the truth, when I put this turkey together...

Another idle thought...something had better start happening in the den, or we will be spending Sunday afternoon in our shed in the back yard...that is when the count down comes for our re-treading...

We were talking to the Leprechaun last week and he said that they took the USS Z-Bra out of dry dock on Sunday and that it was being made sea worthy in the canal for this summer's cruises...he didn't mention anything about the armament that may be on board for this year's action...

This takes care of the bits of turkey for this week...so, we will bid our three little gals, T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to all of our readers, do have a nice weekend...start practicing to Buckle up...will be the law soon...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

ATTACKING JESUS CHRIST

The religious page of the April 20th Detroit News carried an article entitled, "Biblical accounts of Jesus' divinity debated by scholars". A caption under the picture of an old, worn Bible said, "The accuracy of New Testament accounts is being questioned." Words of the opening paragraph began: "Biblical accounts claiming that Jesus of Nazareth was the Son of God and a miracle-working messiah were hotly disputed by an international gathering of historians, scientists, and scholars at the University of Michigan."

The two-day symposium was entitled "Jesus in History and Myth" and was sponsored in part by the Council for Democratic and Secular Humanism. In this the highest tax supported educational institution in Michigan, we find professional educators attacking the faith of our youth. They called Jesus Christ a talented magician who tricked his followers, rather than a miracle working messiah. They described the gospels as the legend of unknown authors. They attacked preachers of God's Word for opposing their unbelief, in this democratic and pluralistic society.

What system of logic permits these men to blaspheme the deity of Jesus Christ, discredit His miracles by calling them deception, and undermining the authority of the Bible as "mythology" while they retain their reputation and position to poison the minds of our youth? What system of logic removes any positive influence of Bible reading and prayer from elementary levels of education, and promotes negative attacks upon Christianity at the graduate level?

These secular humanists are offended when fundamental preachers attack their atheism and unbelief, but they claim a perfect right to blaspheme God, accuse Him of deception, and his followers of bigotry. These secular humanists are the brains behind the unbelief in theology which has undermined our faith. They are the brains behind the sexual permissiveness which gave us herpes, AIDS, and the abortion murder of 15 million babies. These are the brains which have given us the potheads and jarheads who love Communists and rebel against all conservative authority in America.

These secular humanists are the leaders of a growing number of persons found in Revelation 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

For reservations, send name, address, date of arrival and $14.00 to Frankenmuth Travel Park, 1339 Weiss St., Frankenmuth, Mi. 48734. Be sure to say you're with H.T.C.!

"ORDINARY PEOPLE" from Gaylord will be the featured group this Saturday. However, the concert will be held at St. Mary's Family Center in Grayling rather than the Den to accommodate the group and their instruments and the expected larger crowd.

The group includes Ron and Jan Olson formerly from Grayling. Ron Schmoke, Cathy Bowers, Marie Conn and Tom Meisterheim. They play Christian Contemporary Music with original and familiar songs. Instruments include piano, flute, guitars and drums.

Music will start about 8:00 p.m. and last till about 10:00 p.m. No admission will be charged, however, donations will be accepted and the public is invited to attend.

Next Saturday, May 18th will be Jamboree night at the Den as usual. Call Debbie at 348-2232 if you would like to sing a song or share your talent with us. Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Sometime during the past week a little oak tree across the road from the office shed the remainder of last years leaves. While it won't flower for a while yet the stage is set for the next all important step in the production of acorns. The oaks seem to hold off their flowering process until the danger of a killing frost is pretty well past.

The annual cycle of flowers coming into bloom has started. The violets in the yard are showing their blue faces above the new green of the grass and the blossom of the Yellow Trout Lily was in time for the opening of trout season. The Trillium and Trailing Arbutus have swollen buds, so it will not be long before they appear, perhaps in time for the mushroom pickers.

Have you noticed the Pines? They certainly appear to be greener. They seem rather drab during the winter when everything seems to be a shade of black or white, but now they seem bright and fresh. I am not sure if it is because they are such a contrast to the tans and greys that dominate the scene or because they are taking in nutrients and water from the soil. It is probably the latter, but is more fun to think it is because spring has finally sprung. Enjoy the re-awakening of nature as it will not last long.

Almanack

It's a Free Country — So Far

by Richard Milliman

PRESENTING HEREWITH — not for concurrence or approval, but only for consideration (and to get them out of my system) — are one writer's individual views on some recent news events...

Or, perusing a pack of purely personal prejudices.

I CAN'T SHAKE the feeling that the United States is making a big mistake by cutting off aid to the anti-Sandinistas in Nicaragua. I'm not real proud of our country shoveling tax dollars into that civil war, but it's better than doing nothing at all, which seems to be the only other alternative offered. I hope our hands-off policy doesn't come back to haunt us...but I'm afraid it will.

One thing that underlines my concern about Central America is an item that appeared the same day Congress voted down Reagan's aid proposal. Nicaraguan President Daniel Ortega chose that moment to announce an impending trip to Moscow, obviously to seek even more Russian help. The big Communist Bear is in the Western Hemisphere — no question about that. And it's getting closer. It should cause us all to stop and think.

I ALSO CAN'T shake the feeling that there was skulduggery of some sort in that Indiana congressional election, which was won first by the Republican and then by the Democrat. You may recall the circumstances: In the initial tally, the Republican won by 34 votes; in the recount conducted by Indiana state officials, the Republican margin grew to 418 votes; but Democrats in Congress weren't satisfied, so a special committee of two Democrats and one Republican recounted again and the Democrat won by four votes. Who can have confidence in any result now? But which side stole the election? Anybody's guess is good.

I'm reminded of the Nixon-Kennedy presidential race in 1960, in which Kennedy scraped through largely on a thin margin in Chicago. Republicans charged that the Chicago machine stole the election, but Nixon refused to contest the result on the ground that to do so would shake public confidence. You can say a lot of negatives about Nixon, but in that 1960 case, he showed class. There's none in Indiana — or in Congress — this year in a somewhat similar circumstance.

THE MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE is considering tapping the so-called "rainy day fund" to help finance prison construction. That fund, formally called the Budget Stabilization Fund, now holds about $350 million of taxpayer dollars. The idea of the "rainy day" fund is to stash away tax dollars against some emergency in the future when tax collections will fall off, as they always do in Michigan's cyclical economy.

Personally, I don't like the "rainy day fund" concept for government. It seems to me government ought to leave as many dollars as possible with the citizens, rather than tax them extra to store up a surplus against some future emergency. Don't the citizens have as much use for their money as some government sinking fund? When the money is needed is the time to levy taxes, not when it's not really needed.

Following through on this approach — which very few politicians share, incidentally — would dictate using the "rainy day" storage fund for present needs; therefore, go ahead and build prisons with the money, if prisons are needed.

The problem with putting money aside in government is that officeholders will somehow, someday find some way to spend it to fill an unfilled need. Look at the record. It's always happened.

ALSO CURRENT in Michigan is the idea of an amendment to the United States Constitution requiring the federal government to operate with a balanced budget.

I have no problem with the balanced budget amendment, but I don't believe it will bring a balanced budget; only the will of members of Congress to live within our means will bring a balanced budget. There's been a federal law on the books for several years requiring a balanced budget, and see what's happened — the deficit is bigger than ever. Putting it in the constitution only will provide a new challenge in ways to get around it.

What does scare me, however, is to call a new national convention to write a balanced budget amendment, and who knows what other amendments, to our hallowed Constitution. The Constitution is a fundamentally sound document — a work in genius, in many respects — and I don't want a bunch of delegates selected today to even come close to fiddling around with it.

THERE. The chest is now bare. These are my opinions, and you don't have to agree with them. But it's a free country, isn't it? So far, anyway.

Legislature Completing Governor's Farm Loan Proposal

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Dir., MPA

The Legislature is nearing completion of a $70 million loan subsidy program for farmers which is the cornerstone of a four-part package proposed by Governor James Blanchard to aid the agricultural industry.

The loans are intended to help cash-poor farmers with spring-planting needs but planting is now underway and the loans will be just behind the greatest need period.

Blanchard's package also includes a speeded-up farm financial survey, due in early May, to determine the scope of the problem, a toll-free hotline to coordinate assistance and an expanded emergency management assistance team to help farmers evaluate their management practices.

Michigan's agricultural diversity has helped minimize the financial crisis compared to some other states, Blanchard said adding, "We will do what we can to cope with it so we do not separate the family from the farm and create serious long-term problems. This program is not a panacea to a problem that is national and international in scope."

The loan program, supported by certificates of deposit from the state's common cash fund in farm-area banks, would be a "couple of points" below market interest rates and made available to farmers shut out of other financing sources, State Treasurer Robert Bowman said.

He said the first priority for loans would be for seed, fertilizer, chemicals and breeding stock.

"Our goal is to help farmers who do not qualify otherwise for loans," Bowman said. The lower interest rate would make the difference in many instances on whether a loan would be feasible for some farmers, he added.

The program, similar to a $150 million loan made to Chrysler Corporation in 1980, will cost the state about $1 million, he said, because of the difference between what the money would otherwise be earning on the interest rate paid on the certificates by the banks.

The proposal does not have a maximum amount for an individual loan, nor a cap on interest rates, although Financial Institutions Commissioner Eugene Kuthy said, "It is not likely we would be looking at loans of any great size." Loans would be made available for up to two years.

Tim Taylor of the First American Bank of Holland, said a survey of banks indicated 10 percent of farmers were having serious financial problems because of high debt, eroding equity in farm land values and low incomes.

Agriculture Department Director Paul Kindinger said the survey is designed to help determine the size, scope and seriousness of the problem, with officials ready to expand the loan program if needed.

He added it would help to design programs at both the state and national levels. Senate Agriculture and Forestry Committee Chairman Nick Smith (R-Addison) said he was "delighted" the Governor was attempting to do something for farmers, but was critical of the timing of the program.

Smith said action should have been taken in February for the state to be of any real assistance and said the state should lower some of the tax costs for all farmers to help "the 96 percent" who could be faced with a bad situation a year from now.

The Senate has already approved a $107,500 supplemental appropriation, now pending in the House, to assist farmers with toll-free hotlines, additional farm financial advisors, and expanded management analysis teams and computerized decision-making workshops.

G.H.S. PARTICIPATES IN MICHIGAN'S YOUTH IN GOV'T — Michigan State YMCA Youth in Government is a laboratory experience in the State Government process. The executive branch, consisting of the Governor and his cabinet, the Judicial system, with its beginning in local courts, filing petitions for appeal with the Supreme Court and concluding by the youth lawyers arguing their cases before the youth Justices in Lansing; and the developing of ideas into legislation by writing bills, caucusing, meeting with committees, lobbying, electing officers, becoming Senators and Representatives, are all part of the total program.

The complexities of the real State Legislative process unfolds. Expectations can be realized or the disappointments can be crushing as they are in real life and you can begin to understand how it happens.

The purpose of the Michigan YMCA Youth in Government program is to develop within youth a dedication to the values of democracy and leadership in the democratic process.

Grayling High School was represented in this year's program by Barb Fitzgerald, Leslie Fraser, Julie Huss, Karman Hagerman, Sue Casler, and Colette Petrosky. Howard Lehti, G.H.S. government instructor, is the group advisor. Registration fees for 1985 were $82 per student. The government club would like to thank all those that purchased our key chains, or attended our dance. More specifically, special thanks goes out to the Kiwanis and Rotary Club and the Crawford County Republican Party for making our trip a reality.

Vikings KO Onaway, Score 31 Runs in Sweep

Grayling pounded Onaway with the most effective one-two punch combination in baseball - good hitting and good pitching.

Grayling smacked 22 hits and scored 31 runs in a 17-4 and a 14-5 sweep on Onaway last Tuesday.

Dean McKinney struck out 14 in the first game in picking up his first win and Jeff Branch pitched a three-hitter in the second game for the win.

McKinney also helped out the cause by rapping five hits including two RBI singles. Rod Patterson also had five hits and he drove in four runs. One of Patterson's hits was a mammoth home run hit out of deep center field.

Jeff Branch had three hits and drove in four runs. Freshman Jeff McClellan had a banner day with four hits and 8 RBI's. McClellan hit one home run that coach Fred Wolcott said would have cleared the trees at the Grayling field and landed in the practice football field.

Wolcott said his players are being smart at the plate, though, and not trying to hit home runs.

"They're making good contact and going with the pitch," Wolcott said.

May is High Blood Pressure Month

Check Your Blood Pressure FREE At Mac's Drug Store

122 Michigan Ave., Grayling, Mi. — 517-348-2181
 "SERVING GRAYLING FOR OVER 55 YEARS"

Free blood pressure testing during all business hours. Everyone is welcome.

Why should we measure blood pressure?
 High blood pressure should be kept in check because it can contribute to heart disease, strokes and kidney disease. In general, the lower your blood pressure, the longer you will live.

What is normal blood pressure?
 This chart should serve as a reference for adults

Pressure	Systolic	Diastolic
Normal	139 or less	89 or less
Borderline	140-159	90-94
High	160 or more	95 or more

How often should I check my blood pressure?
 To determine your average or typical blood pressure, test it 5-10 times over a period of 3-10 days and determine the average. Then if your average blood pressure is in the normal range, check it again once or twice a year.

If your average blood pressure is in the borderline or high range, consult a physician to discuss your blood pressure record.

Finally, don't forget that it's normal for measurements taken just minutes apart to vary as much as 10-30 points. So the average is very important.

Care enough about yourself to drop by and check your blood pressure. Remember, it's free.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Veteran's Notice

The American Legion Veteran's Service office will be at the Grayling American Legion Post on Monday, May 13th, from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. to assist all veterans and their dependents with V.A. claims. This is a Free service and the veteran need not belong to the Legion.

Donna Thomson has been with our Volunteer Program for the past 12 years. She sells stamps for savings bonds to the students in the Grayling Elementary School, Middle School, and Frederic Elementary.

I asked Donna how she got started doing this particular job. She said she had received a call from the Elementary Principal asking if she would take over the stamp selling for a lady who had to leave. She said she took it over then and has been doing it ever since.

Donna explained to me that we are probably the only School system in the United States that still saves stamps. Years ago the U.S. Government made the stamps and you were able to purchase them at the Post Office. When this stopped the Grayling State Bank took over the venture as a community affair and had the stamps printed themselves.

The idea of the saving stamp is that they are 25 cents each and are collected in a stamp book until they total $25.00. Then it is turned in for a $50.00 U.S. Government savings bond. This is an excellent way for a child to save money. Each week the student purchases as many 25 cent stamps as he/she is able and puts it into their stamp book. This also teaches them responsibility.

Among her other volunteer credits are Boy Scouts, 2 years; Cancer Drive, 5 years; St. Mary's Altar Society, 20 years; and Sweet Adelines, 13 years.

She enjoys basket weaving and just about anything to do with the great outdoors. She also keeps busy with her 4 children, 3 sons and 1 daughter.

When I asked Donn why she keeps doing the same volunteer job year after year she said it is because she enjoys getting out with the children but most of all because she is helping children save their money.

Thanks Donna for giving so much dedication to our young people. Your "caring and sharing" will help many children learn money responsibilities that will follow them through life.

Anyone interested in learning more about volunteering in our schools please call Mrs. Wolf at 348-7641 ext. 52. Please keep in mind that all talents can be put to good use in the education of our young people.

Herbal Corner

A lot of people ask me if herbs are hard to grow. No, they are easy to grow. In fact once they are planted, most take care of themselves. Herbs, such as Thyme, will have stronger flavor if they have to work harder to grow - meaning they can be planted in sand with just a little soil.

Here are a couple of old timer tricks I learned from those who were not old timers.

When you plant carrots, try putting a 2 x 4 down on top of the row you planted. 15 to 21 days later, pick up the 2 x 4 early in the morning, and the sun will pick up the tops of your carrots. The beauty of this is that there are no weeds. Had I not seen this myself, I would have said, "Uh, huh," to anyone who told me.

Have you ever noticed how green everything is after a thunderstorm? The lightning releases the nitrogen from the air, and the plants absorb this nitrogen as it is released. When planting tomatoes stake them with a metal pole, and tie them with the tops of women's knee-high nylons, or anything else containing rubber. The rubber rubbing on the metal during a little wind or shifting of the plants creates static electricity, thereby releasing nitrogen from the air surrounding the plants. Nitrogen is the leading chemical needed for stronger, healthier, and more abundant crops.

If you have any questions write, Cerelli's Herb Farm, Rt. 1 Box 249, Frederic, Mi 49733.

Get In The Habit Now, Buckle Up

Don't wait until July 1 to buckle up — get in the habit now — it could save your life.

That's the advice from Secretary of State Richard Austin who reminds all motorists that Michigan's new safety belt law goes into effect July 1.

Austin said that from his own personal observation on the highway, more motorists have begun wearing belts since the law was passed. "Wearing a belt is a no-cost, simple way of substantially cutting highway deaths and injuries — a good habit to get into," he said.

Six other states — New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico and Indiana, in addition to Michigan's neighbor, Ontario, now have safety belt laws.

FILLING A FIRE TRUCK THE HARD WAY — Lovells Township Fire Department went to Shupac Lake Saturday, April 20, to fill their fire truck with water for a practice run. The truck took on a little bit more water than they wanted. The truck slipped in Shupac Lake and submerged with only a tip of the antenna showing before Michigan National Guard pulled it out. The fire truck actually floated for a distance when it initially slipped into the lake and the National Guard retriever had to use about 150 feet on its winch to reach the truck in the lake. Editor's Mailbox

Dear Editor:
 More than 22 million Americans, many of which are children, have speech, language or hearing impairments. Most of these children can be helped by trained professionals. However, very often their parents do not realize that help is available or how to get it.

May is Better Hearing and Speech Month. The purpose of designating this month is to increase public awareness of communication disorders, of the work of professionals in the field and of local sources of help.

Speech-language pathologists and audiologists are the professionals specifically trained to work with individuals who have communicative disorders, in an effort to improve or restore their communication function. During this month we are urging anyone who has a child who suffers from a speech, language or hearing disorder to learn more about it and to seek help.

For further information, contact the C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District at 275-5137 or the National Association for Hearing and Speech Action, toll free, at (800) 638-TALK.

Sincerely,
 Mike Eva, Maxine Gleason, Debbie Livingston, Mary Ellen Lovelace, Mary Jo MacKillop, Debbie Manninen, Jeanette Murray, Diana Ostrander-Bernson, Sue Stacey, C.O.O.R. Area Speech-Language Therapists.

ABWA Names 2 Co-Bosses

For the first time in history, the Grayling American Business Womens Association named two business leaders as Co-Bosses, of the Year recently. Veterinarians Dr. Wayne Casler and Dr. Paul Mesack, partners in the Grayling Hospital for Animals, were honored for their outstanding qualities in creating an environment for their employees that is more than just a work place.

Drs. Casler and Mesack allow their employees flexible scheduling in order to accommodate educational, family and vacation planning. They reward achievement with gifts, bonuses, raises and recognition. They encourage and will fund continuing education. They create employment which is challenging, and expect the best from their employees and make it possible to achieve the best.

They are active in community affairs as well as in their profession. They were recently honored by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for their voluntary work in caring for ill and injured wild animals and birds.

Pat Best, President of A.B.W.A. and engineer for Granger Engineering of Gaylord, spoke for George Granger, Boss of the Year for 1984, on contributions of women and lauded A.B.W.A. for their commitment to scholarships for women and fostering education with their members. She also passed on to Dr. Mesack and Dr. Casler the "baton of office."

A dinner, attended by over 100 members of the organization and their invited guests also honored past Bosses of the Year, Pat Nunn, Mickey Perez, Tom Rosi and Paul Thomson.

Steve Sendek, D.N.R. Fisheries Biologists presented a slide program on a trip through British Columbia, the Yukon and Northern Canada.

The AuSable Swingers demonstrated their square dancing skills and then passed these skills along to "swinging" members of the audience.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Anyone who takes a casual drive along our forest trails, especially those close to town, can't help but notice a tremendous amount of trash, garbage, junk and filth which is being deposited just about everywhere. The stuff takes the form of washing machines, stoves, broken concrete, mattresses, cans, bottles, old cars and in some cases a kitchen sink or two as well as household rubbish.

As one observes this phenomenon, one thing becomes apparent. The messes seem to accumulate in certain spots, and almost invariably the mess started when someone dumped a load of leaves or grass clippings from their yard.

Pretty soon a few more leaves, maybe some in plastic bags, show up. Then a pile of brush from a trimmed tree or shrub. Next, someone, one of your neighbors, decides to put an old chair at the spot because it's handier than disposing of it properly. Pretty soon we have another open dump on state land — your land.

Ordinarily, no one would get concerned about a few leaves or grass clippings, but the situation has gotten to the point where everyone should get concerned.

The stance now being taken is that litter is litter, whether it is a load of leaves or a load of garbage. It is everyone's responsibility to preserve the quality of our environment.

Violation of the litter law, Act 106 of 1963, is a misdemeanor with a maximum fine of $400.00 plus court costs and/or 90 days in jail. The court may, at its discretion, assign litter-gathering labor as punishment for the crime.

For more information call 348-4151.

Door of Hope Crisis Pregnancy Center is now open Monday thru Friday from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday evening 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. and Saturdays by appointment. Services offered include free pregnancy testing, information and referral, clothing for baby and mother and other support services.

MEMORIUM

In memory of my beloved Mother Belle I. Walker.

It seems like only yesterday, We laughed & talked with you.

And yet, it seems like, Its been such a long time too!

Words cannot describe, Dear Mom, How very much we miss you!

No one can even know how sad

We are in our Hearts & how blue!

But, as you travel Heavens Road, toward those skies of blue, Walk slowly, Dearest Mom of all,

For someday, soon, I'll walk with you!

Sadly missed by her daughter & husband Waneta & Howard Madsen Grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Free Methodist Evangelistic Services

Evangelistic meetings will be held at the Grayling Free Methodist Church Tuesday, May 14, through Friday, May 17, at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, May 19, at 11:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

The evangelist is the Rev. David E. Clardie, who is a graduate of Spring Arbor College. He did his post-graduate work at Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee, Ill. The Rev. Clardie has been in the pastoral ministry since 1969. While serving as pastor of the Free Methodist Church in Richland Center, Wis., the congregation grew from 160 to 440 in average attendance. Approximately 250 people made first time commitments to Christ. Church growth came about because of two main priorities: evangelizing and discipling people for the Kingdom.

Mr. Clardie is a member of the Staley Foundation Christian Scholar Lecture Program, which ministers to college campuses. He has addressed camp meetings, pastors' retreats, church growth seminars, youth conferences and city-wide crusades.

The public is invited to attend these special evangelistic services.

Notice To The Residents of Grayling Township

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO REFERENDUM ON BECOMING A CHARTER TOWNSHIP

Official certification has been received from the Michigan Secretary of State that the township of Grayling has a population of 2,000 or more and the township board has the right to exercise one of three options concerning status as a charter township under the provisions of Act 359, Public Acts of 1947, as amended:

1. Adopt by majority vote a resolution opposed to incorporation as a charter township.

2. Adopt by majority vote a resolution of intent to approve incorporation as a charter township.

3. Adopt by majority vote a resolution to place before the electorate at the next regular or special township election the question of incorporation as a charter township.

In the event option 2 is adopted by the township board, the citizens of the township have the right to file a "Right to Referendum Petition". This petition must be filed within the 60 days which must lapse between passage of a resolution of intent to incorporate and final passage of the resolution to incorporate as a charter township.

The petition will follow, in general form, the nominating petition form as prescribed in the Michigan Election Law, and in the heading will indicate "Disagreement of Intent to Incorporate as a Charter Township." The petition must be signed by not less than 10% of the registered voters of the township based on the vote cast for all candidates for supervisor at the last election at which a supervisor was elected.

If the petition is successful, the question of incorporation will be placed on the ballot at the next general or special township election.

Free Cancer Tests Offered at Hospital

The American Cancer Society and Grayling Mercy Hospital, are co-sponsoring a special week-long health screening to help older men and women protect themselves from colorectal cancer.

A simple self-test, that detects hidden blood in the stool, will be offered free of charge at Mercy Hospital, May 13 through May 17, from 12 noon until 7:00 p.m.

The test detects hidden blood which is a warning sign of colorectal cancer, the second most common type of cancer in adults age forty and older. This test can play an important role in helping to save lives, since colorectal cancer is highly curable when found early and treated promptly, said Raietta Ott, area representative for the Crawford County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Area residents should stop by Mercy Hospital during the week of the screening. Cancer Society volunteers will be available to provide instruction on the proper use of the home test kit. The slides will be returned to Mercy Hospital for examination by the laboratory. There is no fee for this service, said Patricia Hanson, community services coordinator at Mercy Hospital.

Mercy Hospital and the Cancer Society volunteer will be in Houghton Lake on Tuesday, May 14 for the Senior Life with Style Day, at the Holiday Inn. Slide kits can be picked up during that day for individuals attending the one day session. Additional questions can be referred to Patricia Hanson, at Mercy Hospital, (517) 348-5461, ext. 120.

Chamber Chatter

The Annual Banquet of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for May 16th, at the Red Barn. This is an opportunity for the membership to hear a report on the activities and accomplishments of the past fiscal year, to hear the goals and objectives of the 12 Committee Chairmen who control programs of activities within the realm of the Chamber and its philosophy. Outgoing President Kathy Ashton will deliver her State of the Chamber address and the new President will outline his/her program for the year. Entertainment will be furnished by the Viking Singers, a local group of Grayling High School and Directed by Howard Taylor. The group performed at the Secretary's Luncheon and put on a fine performance. I'm sure that they will be well received by the Chamber Membership as well. They did a great job!! The tickets are $12.00 and the dinner features New York Strip Steak with vegetables, salad & beverage. Cash Bar Cocktail hour at 6:00 p.m. Dinner promptly at 7:00 p.m. Program to follow. Tickets are available from any Board Member, chaired by John Alef, or the Chamber Office. The Red Barn entertainment band is available for dancing following the program. Early reservations are advised.

Chamber Members received mailing that contained survey questions submitted by the Department of Social Services, who want to know what other businesses and services are needed or desired in the community. Another questionnaire is from Consumer's Power Company regarding energy usage in buildings other than residential. We are hopeful that you will respond to both requests.

The prize winning Float that carries Miss Grayling to all the parades in our area and sponsored by the Chamber is badly in need of someone to pull the Float to these activities. In the past, Terry Misener Ford and Scheer Motors have donated a pick-up truck and will do so again, but we do need more vehicles and responsible drivers. If you are interested in helping out, please call Curt Jansen or the Chamber. We are getting numerous invitations for our float and Miss Grayling. We want to respond positively, but need your help. This gives you a chance to see how other communities conduct their celebrations and be a part of it too. Call the Chamber or Curt Jansen today if you qualify as a responsible driver.

A Grand Opening was held last Thursday for the Cedar Motel located near the M-72 West intersection. Bruce and Cathy McGuire are the new owners and have joined the Chamber membership. Best wishes to the McGuires.

A hearty thanks to the businesses who welcomed the High School Bands on their billboards last weekend. The students noticed them upon entering the city and sent their thanks for making them feel welcome.

Take a chance

There is a story about two men who took a chance—and one who didn't!

Three trusted servants were left in charge of a small fortune. One began with five talents and earned five more. The second began with two talents and earned two more. But the third was afraid to take a chance. He took the single talent left in his care and buried it. All he earned was the wrath of his master.

The progress of our churches in nurturing the spiritual life of the community depends on the earnest, tireless efforts of people who put their talents to work. Worship is but one ingredient of religion—willingness is another.

Cultivate that spiritual gift the Bible calls zeal. When you're asked or challenged to do something for God, for your church, for your neighbors... take a chance. Bring your talents to the task!

Forest Service Conducting Eagle Nesting Survey

The USDA-Forest Service and Michigan Department of Natural Resources are presently conducting their annual eagle nesting survey nation wide.

An aerial search took place over sections of Northern Lower Michigan to check 44 known nesting territories.

A total of 28 active territories were found compared to 33 last year. Fourteen nests are within the Huron-Manistee National Forests.

Eagles were sited in parts of Alcona, Benzie, Clare, Crawford, Missaukee, Newaygo, Oscoda, Roscommon, Otsego, Montmorency, Alpena, Presque Isle, Kalkaska, and Emmet counties.

Bill Irvine, Wildlife Biologist for the Huron-

Manistee National Forests said, "the decrease was not good, but it's not time to panic." The drop in nesting sites could be from eagles that have changed the location of their nests.

The Forest Service plans to do more searching over the Manistee River in the next two to three weeks and check again in late May or early June.

Irvine said any information from the public concerning the eagles is welcome.

The nesting survey has been taken since 1960. Overall, eagle populations have decreased from 1960 to 1980, but started to increase five years ago according to Irvine. New territories have been sited and more young were successfully fledged.

GHS Presents "Camelot" This Weekend

Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, creators of "My Fair Lady" have provided audiences with another reason to "dance all night," with their follow-up musical "Camelot" which is coming to Grayling's Joseph Stripe Auditorium May 9, 10 and 11, 1985.

This re-telling of the oft-told tale of the medieval King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table has been based on T.H. White's best-selling novel recounting the legend with twentieth century wit and grace, called "The Once and Future King."

The musical comedy version that Lerner made from this novel comes here with records of a highly successful run of 25 months on Broadway and a remarkably triumphant tour of the principal cities of America, where audiences paid in an unprecedented $80,000 or more week after week at every box-office.

Mr. Lerner's story begins with the first meeting of the youthful King Arthur and the beautiful Guenevere, when neither knew they had already been betrothed. It traces their days of happiness together and the events that led to Arthur's bitter failure to achieve his dream of perfect peace and order for his kingdom, due to the villainy of Sir Mordred and the traitorous love of Guenevere and Arthur's bravest knight, Sir Lancelot.

Entwined through this romantic legend are some of Frederick Loewe's most lyrical song hits, including "If Ever I Would Leave You," "C'est Moi," "How to Handle a Woman," "What Do Simple Folk Do?" and the title song that was a favorite of President Kennedy, especially in its line, so prophetic for himself, "Do let it be forgot, that once there was a spot, for one brief shining moment that was known as Camelot."

The twenty scenes of the show being spectacularly designed by Maria Perez and Mr. Bill Bonkowski depict the fabled towers of "many-towered Camelot" and its environs, including the jousting field, a forest ruled over by a sleek and sultry witch, the Great Hall and chambers of the castle where the courtly knights engage in the arts and practices of chivalry, and sometimes fall short of their ideals.

The royal couple who rule over Camelot will be portrayed by Allen Morford and Amy Smith as Arthur and Guenevere. The valorous knight, Sir Lancelot, who can vanquish all foes, yet falls victim to his love for the King's wife, will be played by Jeff McLaughlin. Jeff Martinez will be seen as a medieval version of Colonel Blimp and Kevin Reynolds will be seen as the famed magician, Merlyn. Arthur's natural son, Mordred, who conspires for his father's downfall, will be played by Todd Moore. Debbie Schanz will be the seductive witch Morgan Le Fey.

Tickets for the Grayling production of Camelot are presently on sale at the Board of Education Office Building in downtown Grayling. Tickets will also be available at the door. All seats are reserved and the price of admission is $5.00. Curtain time at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium is 8:00 p.m.

New Management Named at GHCC

Paula Kobrzycki has accepted the position as Administrator of the Grayling Health Care Center (GHCC) effective May 1.

Harvey S. Klein, Jr., former GHCC Administrator, has assumed administrative responsibilities of a 100-bed nursing home in Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I am sorry to be leaving the people of Grayling," stated Klein, "but the excellent quality of care provided to our patients is the direct result of the dedication and concern of our employees and this will not change under the leadership of Paula Kobrzycki."

Kobrzycki has been the Director of Nursing at GHCC since the facility opened in March of 1984 having also earned her Administrator's License in '84.

"We are dedicated to providing a nursing home where residents may live and function as active participants - able to accomplish personal goals while realizing full rehabilitative potential - this is the definition of quality care," said Kobrzycki.

The Grayling Health Care Center, effective May 1, will be managed by the Hillhaven Corporation. Hillhaven Corporation is the second largest nursing home provider in the United States.

"The Hillhaven Corporation is recognized nationwide for being the best nursing home corporation not the largest," says Kobrzycki, "preferring to instead focus on providing quality nursing care."

Judy Tremblay, former Day Shift Nursing Supervisor and employed at GHCC since July of '84, will be moving into the position of Director of Nursing.

Par For The Course

The Monday Night Ladies golf league will have an organizational meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the Country Club on Monday, May 20, 1985.

The first league game will be played on Monday, June 3.

Sign up sheets for playing times will be on the bulletin board.

New members are welcome and it is hoped that all who played in previous years will join again this year.
